

IPO Chart

Component: Business Services

Module Name: Dictionary Engine

Author:

Reviewers:

Inputs	Process	Outputs
Word	Translates the given word from English to the given language and gives definition	Return Data
Language		Return Code

Inputs:

Word – an English word to be translated into another language

Language – A name of a language that the user wants to translate a word to

Process Description

Finds the language file of the given language. Finds the word in that language file that corresponds with the given English word.

Outputs

Return Data - Either the translated word or the error message if something went wrong

Return Code - code that illustrates the success of the module process